Have any fresh herbs in the back of your fridge—say some basil or parsley—just begging to be used? We highly recommend chopping up a handful and sprinkling over your finished dish!

1.

Heat broiler to high. Bring a medium pot of salted water to a boil. Wash and dry produce. Halve, peel, and finely chop onion. Peel and finely chop garlic. Dice tomato. Remove sausage from casing; discard casing.

 No need to remove the casing—there is none!

Heat a drizzle of oil in a medium, preferably ovenproof, pan (use a large pan for 4 servings) over medium-high heat. Add onion and season with salt and pepper. Cook, stirring, until softened, 4–5 minutes.

3.

Add sausage, garlic, and Italian Seasoning to pan with onion. Cook, breaking up meat into pieces, until sausage is browned and cooked through, 4–5 minutes. Stir in diced tomato and tomato paste; season with salt and pepper. Cook, stirring, until tomato is slightly softened, 2–3 minutes.

 Swap in chicken sausage for pork sausage.

Meanwhile, break up gnocchi with your hands to separate. Once water is boiling, carefully add gnocchi to pot. Cook, stirring occasionally, until tender, 3–4 minutes. Reserve 1 cup pasta cooking water, then drain.

5.

Once gnocchi is drained, stir cream cheese, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup reserved pasta cooking water ($\frac{3}{4}$ cup for 4 servings), and 1 TBSP butter (2 TBSP for 4) into pan with sausage mixture until thoroughly combined. Add drained gnocchi; stir to coat. (If sauce is too thick, add another splash or two of pasta cooking water.)

6.

Taste and season gnocchi mixture with salt and pepper. (If your pan isn't ovenproof, transfer mixture to a baking dish now.) Evenly sprinkle with mozzarella. Broil until cheese is browned and sauce is bubbly, 2–3 minutes. (Watch carefully to avoid burning. The broiler is a powerful tool!) Divide between plates.
