Don't worry if some of the cheese oozes out of your meatloaves while they're in the oven. It'll crisp up and turn toasty-delicious on the baking sheet (hellooo, accidental frico)!

1.

Adjust racks to top and middle positions and preheat oven to 425 degrees. Wash and dry produce. Cut potatoes into ½-inch-thick wedges. Halve, core, and thinly slice bell pepper into strips. Halve, peel, and thinly slice onion.

2.

Toss potatoes on a baking sheet with a drizzle of oil, 1 tsp Fry Seasoning (2 tsp for 4 servings; you'll use the rest in the next step), salt, and pepper. Roast on top rack until browned and crispy, 20–25 minutes.

3.

Meanwhile, in a large bowl, soak bread with 2 TBSP water (4 TBSP for 4 servings); break up with your hands until pasty. Add beef, remaining Fry Seasoning, and a pinch of salt and pepper; mix to combine. Flatten into two ½-inch-thick rounds (four rounds for 4). Reserve half the cheese for topping; divide remaining cheese between centers of each round. Fold edges of meat around cheese, shaping and sealing to create 1-inch-tall loaves. Place on a second baking sheet; bake on middle rack for 20 minutes (you'll glaze the meatloaves then).

4.

While meatloaves bake, heat a drizzle of oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. Add bell pepper and onion; cook, stirring occasionally, until browned and tender, 7–8 minutes. Add 2 TBSP water (4 TBSP for 4 servings); cook, stirring, until water has evaporated and veggies are tender. Season with salt and pepper, then stir in 1 TBSP butter (2 TBSP for 4) until melted. Turn off heat; cover to keep warm.

5.

While veggies cook, in a small bowl, combine mustard, 3 TBSP ketchup, and 2 tsp brown sugar (6 TBSP ketchup and 4 tsp brown sugar for 4 servings). (If you don't have brown sugar, swap in 1 tsp white sugar; 2 tsp for 4.) Once meatloaves have baked 20 minutes, remove sheet from oven. Brush tops with ketchup glaze, then evenly sprinkle with reserved cheese.

6.

Return sheet to oven until meatloaves are cooked through and cheese is melted, 3–5 minutes more. Divide meatloaves and potatoes between plates. Top meatloaves with veggies.

Ground Beef is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 160 degrees.
