CHEF'S TIP

In step 3, we instruct you to trim and remove the strings from the snap peas. Our fave way to do this? Simply snap off the stem end with your fingers and gently pull (like you would a zipper) until the string detaches from the pod. BOOM!

1. Wash and dry produce. Peel and finely chop or grate garlic. Peel and finely chop or grate ginger.

2. Melt 1 TBSP butter (2 TBSP for 4 servings) in a small pot over medium-high heat. Add garlic and half the ginger. Cook, stirring, until fragrant, 30 seconds. Stir in rice, 1¼ cups water (2¼ cups for 4), and a big pinch of salt. Bring to a boil, then cover and reduce heat to low. Cook until rice is tender, 15–18 minutes. Keep covered off heat until ready to serve.

3. While rice cooks, in a small bowl, combine mayonnaise with half the chili sauce (you'll use the rest later). Stir in water 1 tsp at a time until mixture reaches a drizzling consistency. Season with salt and pepper. Set aside. Trim snap peas; remove and discard strings.

4. Heat a drizzle of oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. Add snap peas; cook, without stirring, until charred on one side, 1–2 minutes. Continue to cook, stirring occasionally, until tender and charred all over, 1–2 minutes more. Transfer to a second small bowl and season with salt and pepper. Cover to keep warm.

5. Pat diced steak dry with paper towels. Heat a drizzle of oil in pan used for snap peas over high heat. Add steak and cook, stirring occasionally, until browned and cooked to desired doneness, 2–3 minutes. Add remaining ginger; cook until fragrant, 30 seconds. Stir in ponzu and remaining chili sauce until coated, 1–2 minutes. Remove from heat; season with salt and pepper.

6. Fluff rice with a fork and season with salt and pepper. Divide between bowls. Top with glazed steak and charred snap peas in separate sections. Drizzle everything with chili mayo.

Steak is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 145 degrees.
