When forming your patties in step 4, be gentle and try not to overwork the meat. Using a light touch when flattening and shaping will make for juicy and tender results!

1.

Adjust racks to top and middle positions and preheat oven to 450 degrees. Wash and dry produce. Cut potatoes into ½-inch-thick wedges. Trim and thinly slice onion. Peel and finely chop garlic.

↔ Swap in sweet potatoes for Yukon Gold potatoes.

2.

Toss potatoes on a baking sheet with a drizzle of oil and half the Southwest Spice (you'll use more later). Season generously with salt and pepper. Roast on top rack, flipping halfway through, until browned and tender, 20–25 minutes.

3.

While potatoes roast, heat a drizzle of oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. Add onion and a pinch of salt and pepper. Cook, stirring, until lightly browned and softened, 6–7 minutes. Stir in 1 tsp sugar (2 tsp for 4 servings), 1 TBSP butter (2 TBSP for 4), and if you've got some on hand, hot sauce from your pantry if desired. Reduce heat under pan to medium. Cook, stirring, until onion is caramelized, 3–4 minutes more. Turn off heat; transfer to a bowl. Wipe out pan.

4.

Meanwhile, in a large bowl, combine pork, garlic, 1 tsp Southwest Spice (2 tsp for 4 servings; you'll use the rest in the next step), salt (we used ¾ tsp; 1½ tsp for 4), and pepper. Form into two patties (four patties for 4), each a bit wider than a burger bun. Heat a drizzle of oil in pan used for onion over medium-high heat. Add patties and cook until browned and cooked through, 4–6 minutes per side. In the last 2 minutes of cooking, top patties with cheese; cover pan to melt cheese.

5.

In a small bowl, combine 3 TBSP ketchup (6 TBSP for 4 servings), remaining Southwest Spice, and a pinch of pepper.

6.

Halve and toast buns. Spread some spiced ketchup onto cut sides of buns; fill with patties and caramelized onion. Divide burgers and potato wedges between plates. Serve with remaining spiced ketchup on the side.

Ground Pork is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 160 degrees.
