CHEF'S TIP

Hello, lucky EP friend! Let us get you acquainted with our current seafood obsession: bay scallops. These small, sweet, and succulent shellfish are the perfect complement to creamy, dreamy linguine. We know you're gonna love 'em.

Bring a large pot of salted water to a boil. Wash and dry all produce. Peel and finely chop garlic. Zest and quarter lemon. Dice tomato. Finely chop chives. Pat scallops dry with paper towels; season all over with salt and pepper.

Once water is boiling, add pasta to pot. Cook, stirring occasionally, until al dente, 9–11 minutes. Reserve ½ cup pasta cooking water, then drain.

Meanwhile, heat 1 TBSP butter (2 TBSP for 4 servings) and a drizzle of oil in a large pan over high heat. Once pan is very hot, add scallops and cook, stirring occasionally, until browned and cooked through, 2–3 minutes. Transfer scallops to a plate and set aside. Remove pan from heat to cool for 1 minute, then heat over medium low.

Add 1 TBSP butter (2 TBSP for 4 servings) and garlic to same pan; cook until fragrant, 30 seconds. Add tomato and season with salt and pepper. Cook, stirring, until just softened, 2–3 minutes. Stir in cream cheese, stock concentrate, and ¼ cup plain water (½ cup for 4). Add half the Parmesan (save the rest for serving); stir until thoroughly combined. Remove pan from heat. Season sauce with salt and pepper.

Once pasta is drained, heat pan with sauce over medium heat; add pasta, scallops (discard any excess liquid on plate), lemon zest, half the chives, and a squeeze of lemon juice. Toss, adding splashes of reserved pasta cooking water as necessary, until pasta is thoroughly coated in sauce, 1–2 minutes. Season with salt and pepper.

Divide pasta between bowls and top with remaining chives and Parmesan. Serve with remaining lemon wedges on the side.

Scallops are fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 145 degrees.
