If you look closely, you'll see that your steak naturally has lines running through it. In order to ensure maximum tenderness, we want you to slice perpendicular to those lines, aka against the grain (as you'll do in step 6). It'll make the end result ten bajillion times better (scientific fact).

1.

Preheat oven to 450 degrees. Wash and dry produce. Cut potatoes into 1/4-inch-thick rounds. Cut broccoli florets into bite-size pieces if necessary. Trim and thinly slice mushrooms. Halve, peel, and finely chop onion until you have 1/4 cup (1/2 cup for 4 servings). Toss potatoes on a baking sheet with a drizzle of oil, salt, and pepper. Roast for 18–20 minutes (you'll start the broccoli after 5 minutes).

2.

While potatoes roast, pat steak dry with paper towels; season all over with salt and pepper. Heat a drizzle of oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. Add steak and cook to desired doneness, 3–5 minutes per side. Turn off heat; transfer to a cutting board. Tent with foil to keep warm.

3.

Toss broccoli on a second baking sheet with a drizzle of oil, salt, and pepper. Once potatoes have roasted 5 minutes, transfer sheet to oven. Roast until broccoli is tender and potatoes are golden brown and crispy, 12–15 minutes.

4.

Meanwhile, heat a drizzle of oil in pan used for steak over medium-high heat. Add mushrooms and cook, stirring, until browned and tender, 5–7 minutes. Add chopped onion and another drizzle of oil. Cook, stirring, until softened, 1–2 minutes.

5.

Stir stock concentrate and 1/4 cup water (1/3 cup for 4 servings) into pan with mushroom mixture. Simmer until slightly thickened, 2–3 minutes. Remove from heat; stir in sour cream and 1 TBSP butter (2 TBSP for 4) until melted and combined. Season generously with pepper.

6.

Thinly slice steak against the grain. Divide steak, broccoli, and potatoes between plates. Spoon mushroom sauce over steak.

Steak is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 145 degrees.
