CHEF'S
TIP

Want to nail the perfect pot of rice? Once your water boils in step 1, immediately cover the pot with a tight-fitting lid and reduce the heat to its lowest setting. Let the rice simmer until no water remains (resisting the urge to peek!). Finally, let the pot sit off heat while you cook the rest of the meal. This crucial step allows the moisture to redistribute, giving you tender, fluffy grains every time.

1.

Wash and dry produce. In a small pot, combine rice, stock concentrate, $\frac{3}{4}$ cup water ($1\frac{1}{2}$ cups for 4 servings), and a pinch of salt. Bring to a boil, then cover and reduce to a low simmer. Cook until rice is tender, 15–18 minutes. Keep covered off heat until ready to use in step 5.

2.

While rice cooks, peel and grate or finely chop ginger. Halve, peel, and dice onion into $\frac{1}{2}$ -inch pieces. Trim, peel, and dice carrot into $\frac{1}{3}$ -inch pieces. Peel and finely chop garlic. In a small bowl, whisk together soy sauce, ponzu, and $\frac{1}{2}$ tsp sugar (1 tsp for 4 servings) until sugar mostly dissolves.

3.

Crack eggs into a medium bowl and season with salt and pepper; whisk until well combined and frothy. Heat a drizzle of oil in a large, preferably nonstick, pan over medium heat. Pour in eggs and scramble to preference. Turn off heat; transfer to a second small bowl. Wipe out pan. (Alternatively, heat a drizzle of oil in a medium, preferably nonstick, pan over medium heat. Once hot, crack eggs into pan and cover. Fry eggs to preference. Lightly season with salt and pepper. Turn off heat; transfer to a plate. Add atop bowls in step 6. Wipe out pan.)

4.

Heat a large drizzle of oil in pan used for eggs over medium-high heat. Add ginger, onion, and carrot; season with salt and pepper. Cook until carrot is lightly browned and slightly softened, 5–6 minutes. Add garlic; cook, stirring, until fragrant, 30 seconds. Add pork and a big pinch of salt (we used $\frac{1}{2}$ tsp). Using a spatula, press pork into an even layer. Cook until browned on bottom, 2–3 minutes. Break up meat into pieces and continue cooking, 2–3 minutes more (it'll finish cooking in the next step).

5.

Transfer cooked rice to pan with pork and veggies. Stir in soy sauce mixture and peas. Cook until pork is cooked through, 1–2 minutes more. Remove pan from heat and stir in scrambled eggs. Season with salt and pepper to taste.

6.

Divide pork fried rice between bowls. (If you like things spicy, top with a drizzle of your favorite hot sauce!)

Ground Pork is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 160 degrees.
