Our trick to achieving a bomb.com risotto? Start with warm stock! (That's why we mean it when we say to use hot water in step 3.) The steamy liquid helps the rice release its natural starches, yielding a creamy, dreamy finished dish.

1.

Wash and dry produce. Peel and finely chop garlic. Zest and halve lemon. Trim and thinly slice scallions, separating whites from greens.

2.

Rinse shrimp under cold water, then pat dry with paper towels. Place in a medium bowl with half the garlic, half the lemon zest, ½ tsp sugar (1 tsp for 4 servings), and a drizzle of olive oil; toss to combine. Season with salt, pepper, and if you've got some on hand, chili flakes from your pantry if desired.

3.

In a large liquid measuring cup or bowl, combine 4 cups hot water (7 cups for 4 servings) and stock concentrate. Melt 1 TBSP butter (2 TBSP for 4) in a large pan over medium-high heat. Add scallion whites and remaining garlic. Cook, stirring, until fragrant, 1 minute. Add rice and cook, stirring, until translucent, 1–2 minutes.

4.

Add ½ cup stock to pan with rice mixture. Cook, stirring, until liquid has mostly absorbed. Repeat with remaining stock—adding ½ cup at a time and stirring until liquid has absorbed—until rice is al dente and mixture is creamy, 25–30 minutes. (Depending on the size of your pan, you may need a little more or a little less liquid.) Turn off heat; taste and season with salt and pepper.

5.

When risotto is almost done, heat a drizzle of oil in a second large pan over high heat. Add shrimp mixture; cook, flipping once or twice, until shrimp are opaque and cooked through, 2–3 minutes. Stir in a squeeze of lemon juice. Turn off heat.

6.

Stir cheese, 1 TBSP butter (2 TBSP for 4 servings), and a squeeze of lemon juice into risotto until melted and combined. Taste and season generously with salt and pepper. Divide risotto between bowls and top with shrimp mixture, scallion greens, remaining lemon zest, and more chili flakes if desired.

Shrimp are fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 145 degrees.
