CHEF'S TIP

In Step 4, you'll pound your chicken nice and thin between 2 pieces of plastic wrap. (Psst—you could also use a big zip-close bag.) Think of this process as your weeknight stress reliever and (more importantly) your ticket to fast, even cooking and crispy edges! That's a win-win-win.

1.

Adjust rack to middle position and preheat oven to 425 degrees. Wash and dry produce. Trim, peel, and cut carrots on a diagonal into ½-inch-thick pieces. Peel and finely chop garlic. Trim and thinly slice scallions, separating whites from greens; finely chop whites.

↔ Trim green beans if necessary or cut broccoli into bite-size pieces.

Toss carrots on a baking sheet with a drizzle of oil, salt, pepper, and a pinch of chili flakes from your pantry if desired (skip if you don't like things spicy!). Roast on middle rack until browned and tender, 20–25 minutes. Heat a drizzle of oil in a small pot over medium-high heat. Add half the garlic; cook, stirring, until fragrant, 1 minute. Stir in rice to coat, then add 1¼ cups water (2¼ cups for 4 servings) and a pinch of salt. Bring to a boil, then cover and reduce heat to a low simmer. Cook until rice is tender, 15–20 minutes. Keep covered off heat until ready to serve.

↔ Swap in green beans or broccoli for carrots. Roast until browned and tender, 12–15 minutes for green beans or 15–20 minutes for broccoli.

3.

Meanwhile, in a medium bowl, combine honey, soy sauce, vinegar, ¼ cup water, 2 TBSP brown sugar, and ¼ tsp salt (for 4 servings, use ½ cup water, 4 TBSP brown sugar, and ½ tsp salt).

4.

Place ¼ cup flour (½ cup for 4 servings) in a shallow dish; season with salt and pepper. Pat chicken dry with paper towels. Place between 2 large pieces of plastic wrap; pound with a mallet or heavy-bottomed pan until about ⅓ inch thick. Season all over with salt and pepper. Working one piece at a time, press chicken into flour mixture until fully coated; gently shake off excess. Heat a large drizzle of oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. Add chicken; cook until golden brown and cooked through, 3–4 minutes per side. Turn off heat; transfer chicken to a plate. Wipe out pan.

5.

Heat a drizzle of oil in same pan over low heat. Add scallion whites and remaining garlic; cook until fragrant, 30 seconds, then stir in soy sauce mixture. Cook, stirring occasionally, until slightly thickened, 2–3 minutes. Stir in 2 TBSP butter (4 TBSP for 4 servings) until melted and glaze is glossy. Turn off heat, then add chicken to pan and turn to coat.

Chicken is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 165°.

6.

Fluff rice with a fork; stir in 1 TBSP butter (2 TBSP for 4 servings) until melted. Taste and season with salt and pepper if desired. Divide chicken, rice, and carrots between plates. Drizzle chicken with any remaining glaze and sprinkle with scallion greens.
