Want to nail the perfect pot of rice? Once your water boils in step 1, immediately cover the pot with a tight-fitting lid and reduce heat to the lowest setting. Let it simmer until no water remains (resisting the urge to peek!). Finally, let the pot sit off heat while you cook the rest of the meal. This crucial step allows the moisture to redistribute, giving you tender, fluffy grains every time.

In a small pot, combine rice, 1¼ cups water (2¼ cups for 4 servings), and a big pinch of salt. Bring to a boil, then cover and reduce heat to low. Cook until rice is tender, 15–20 minutes. Keep covered off heat until ready to serve.

2.

While rice cooks, wash and dry produce. Trim and halve cucumber lengthwise; thinly slice crosswise into half-moons. Zest and quarter lime (for 4 servings, zest one lime and quarter both). Peel and finely chop garlic. Halve, peel, and cut onion into a medium dice. Trim, peel, and grate carrot on the largest holes of a box grater.

3.

In a medium bowl, combine cucumber, juice from half the lime, ¼ tsp sugar (½ tsp for 4 servings), and a pinch of salt. In a small bowl, combine mayonnaise, a squeeze of lime juice, a pinch of garlic, and as much Sriracha as you like. Season with salt and pepper.

4.

Heat a drizzle of oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. Add onion; cook, stirring, until softened, 4–5 minutes. Add beef, remaining garlic, and 2 tsp sugar (4 tsp for 4 servings). Cook, breaking up meat into pieces, until beef is browned and cooked through, 4–5 minutes. Stir in ponzu. Turn off heat; taste and season with salt and pepper.

While onion cooks, pat diced steak dry with paper towels; season with salt and pepper. Simply cook through this step as instructed, swapping in steak for beef. Cook, stirring occasionally, until browned and cooked to desired doneness, 2–3 minutes.

Fluff rice with a fork; stir in lime zest and 1 TBSP butter. Divide rice between bowls. Arrange beef, grated carrot, and pickled cucumber (draining first) on top. Top with a squeeze of lime juice and drizzle with Sriracha mayo.

*Ground Beef is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 160 degrees.
Steak is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 145 degrees.*
