Worried about butter splattering in your microwave in step 2? (We've all been there.) Cover your bowl with a damp paper towel, then proceed without worry!

1.

Adjust rack to top position and preheat oven to 400 degrees. Wash and dry produce. Peel and finely chop garlic. Remove biscuits from packaging; quarter biscuits. Halve, core, and thinly slice bell pepper into strips. Halve, peel, and thinly slice half the onion (whole onion for 4 servings). Remove sausage from casing; discard casing.

2.

In a large microwave-safe bowl, add garlic and 2 TBSP butter (4 TBSP for 4 servings); microwave until butter has melted and garlic is fragrant, 30 seconds. Toss biscuits in garlic butter to coat; season with salt and pepper.

3.

Heat a drizzle of oil in a medium, preferably ovenproof, pan (use a large, preferably ovenproof, pan for 4 servings) over medium-high heat. Add bell pepper; cook, stirring occasionally, until browned and tender, 4–5 minutes. Add sausage and sliced onion; season generously with salt and pepper. Cook, breaking up meat into pieces, until sausage is browned and cooked through and onion is softened, 4–6 minutes. Turn off heat.

4.

Transfer sausage and veggie mixture to bowl with garlic butter biscuits. Stir to combine, making sure biscuits are evenly dispersed. Transfer to pan used for sausage and spread out in an even layer. (If your pan isn't ovenproof, transfer mixture to a baking dish.) Bake until biscuits are puffed and golden brown, 15–18 minutes.

5.

Once biscuits are puffed and golden brown, remove pan from oven. Heat broiler to high. Spread marinara sauce over top, then sprinkle with mozzarella. Broil until cheese has melted, 2–3 minutes. (Watch carefully to avoid burning. The broiler is a powerful tool!) Let skillet cool slightly. Divide between plates or serve family-style, straight from the pan.

Pork Sausage is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 160 degrees.
