Why are we always telling you to pat your chicken dry? Well, since you asked, drying protein with paper towels ensures even browning rather than steaming. Crispy, caramelized edges = major flavor!

1.

Wash and dry produce. Peel and finely chop or grate garlic. Heat a drizzle of oil in a small pot over medium-high heat. Add half the garlic; cook, stirring, until fragrant, 30 seconds. Stir in rice and 1 ¼ cups water (2 ¼ cups for 4 servings). Bring to a boil, then cover and reduce heat to low. Cook until rice is tender, 15–20 minutes. Keep covered off heat until ready to serve.

2.

While rice cooks, quarter lime. In a large bowl, whisk together ponzu, soy sauce, chili sauce, half the peanut butter, a big squeeze of lime juice, and 1 tsp sugar (2 tsp for 4 servings). (Taste the sauce and add more peanut butter if you'd like!) Season with salt. Add a splash of water if sauce is too thick—it should be pourable.

3.

Trim, peel, and grate carrot on the largest holes of a box grater. Trim and halve cucumber lengthwise; thinly slice crosswise into half-moons. In a small bowl, combine carrot, cucumber, juice from remaining lime wedges, and ½ tsp sugar (1 tsp for 4 servings). Season with salt and pepper.

4.

Pat chicken dry with paper towels. Heat a drizzle of oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. Add chicken and season generously with salt and pepper. Cook, stirring occasionally, until chicken is browned and cooked through, 4–6 minutes. Add remaining garlic; cook, stirring, until fragrant, 30 seconds. Turn off heat.

5.

Carefully transfer chicken mixture to bowl with peanut sauce; stir until chicken is thoroughly coated. If sauce is too thick, stir in a splash of water.

6.

Fluff rice with a fork; stir in 1 TBSP butter (2 TBSP for 4 servings). Season with salt and pepper. Divide between shallow bowls or plates; top with chicken stir-fry and any remaining sauce from bowl. Add pickled veggie salad (draining first if necessary) next to chicken.

Chicken is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 165 degrees.
