CHEF'S In step 3, you'll be making a panade, meaning here a mixture of bread and water. (Psst—if you've got some, you can replace the water with the same amount of the balance.) you've got some, you can replace the water with the same amount of milk!) This easy trick helps keep your meatloaves moist and tender. "The more you know!"

Preheat oven to 425 degrees. Wash and dry all produce. Cut potatoes into 1/2-inchthick wedges. Trim, peel, and cut carrots on a diagonal into 1/4-inch-thick pieces. Halve, peel, and thinly slice onion. Peel and finely chop garlic.

2 Toss potato wedges on a baking sheet with a drizzle of oil, half the rosemary (you'll use the rest later), salt, and pepper. Roast on top rack until tender, 20-25 minutes.

While potatoes roast, in a medium bowl. soak bread with 2 TBSP water (4 TBSP for 4 servings). Let absorb, then break up with your hands until pasty. Add beef, garlic, remaining rosemary, salt (we used 3/4 tsp kosher salt; 1½ tsp for 4), and pepper; mix to combine. Form into two loaves (four for 4 servings) and place on one side of a second baking sheet.

Toss carrots on opposite side of baking sheet from meatloaves with a drizzle of oil, salt, and pepper. Roast on middle rack for 20 minutes (we'll top the meatloaves then).

5. Meanwhile, heat a drizzle of oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. Add onion and season with salt and pepper. Cook, stirring, until softened and lightly browned, 8-10 minutes. Add 1/4 cup water (1/3 cup for 4 servings), stock concentrate, and 1 tsp sugar (2 tsp for 4). Cook, stirring, until onion is caramelized and jammy, 2-3 minutes. Turn off heat and stir in 2 TBSP butter (3 TBSP for 4). Season with salt and pepper.

6. Once meatloaves have baked 20 minutes, remove baking sheet from oven and top with caramelized onion and cheese. Return to middle rack until cheese has melted, meatloaves are cooked through, and carrots are tender, 3-5 minutes more. Divide potatoes, carrots, and meatloaves between plates.
