Want to nail the perfect pot of rice? Once your water boils in step 1, immediately cover the pot with a tight-fitting lid and reduce the heat to the lowest setting. Let it simmer until no water remains (resisting the urge to peek!). Finally, let the pot sit off heat while you cook the rest of the meal. This crucial step allows the moisture to redistribute, giving you tender, fluffy grains every time.

Wash and dry produce. Peel and finely chop ginger. Place rice in a fine-mesh sieve and rinse until water runs clear. Heat a drizzle of oil in a small pot over medium-high heat. Add half the ginger; cook, stirring, until fragrant, 1 minute. Stir in rice to coat, then add 1 cup water (2 cups for 4 servings) and a pinch of salt. Bring to a boil, then cover and reduce heat to low. Cook until rice is tender, 15 minutes. Keep covered off heat for at least 10 minutes or until ready to serve.

Pat chicken dry with paper towels and place in a medium bowl. Season with salt and pepper, then toss with remaining cornstarch. Heat a large drizzle of oil in a large pan over high heat. Add chicken in a single layer and cook, stirring occasionally, until browned and cooked through, 4–6 minutes. Remove from pan and set aside.

Add cooked chicken and ponzu mixture to pan. Cook, stirring, until sauce has thickened, about 1 minute. Remove pan from heat and stir in 1 TBSP butter (2 TBSP for 4 servings) until melted. If sauce seems too thick, add a splash of water.

While rice cooks, core, deseed, and dice green pepper into $\frac{3}{4}$ -inch pieces. Peel and finely chop garlic. In a small bowl, whisk together ponzu, soy sauce, chili sauce, 1 tsp cornstarch (2 tsp for 4 servings; you'll use the rest in the next step), 2 tsp sugar (4 tsp for 4), and $\frac{1}{4}$ cup water ($\frac{1}{3}$ cup for 4).

Trim green beans if necessary and halve crosswise.

Heat a drizzle of oil in same pan over medium-high heat. Add green pepper and season with salt and pepper. Cook, stirring often, until browned and softened, 3–5 minutes. Add another drizzle of oil, garlic, and remaining ginger. Cook, stirring, until fragrant and softened, 1 minute.

Simply cook through this step as instructed, swapping in green beans for green pepper.

Fluff rice with a fork; stir in 1 TBSP butter and a pinch of salt. Divide rice between bowls or plates and top with stir-fry.

Chicken is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 165 degrees.
